COMMENTS

Well cared for Cape Cod style home located in the Fishing Creek area of North Cape May, nestled on a large approximately 1/2 acre lot on a cul-de-sac street. Full of curb appeal, as you approach the home, you'll be met by lush landscaping leading to the covered front porch. Enter through the front door to a receiving area that leads to the living room. Beyond the living room is an additional living area in the cozy family room, complete with gas fireplace and windows overlooking the front gardens. This first floor living area flows into the well-equipped and large kitchen, boasting stainless steel appliances and ample lighting. Off of the kitchen is a dining room perfect for enjoying meals together or comforting game nights. Slider doors lead to the large deck with composite decking, overlooking the fenced-in back yard that features a large space for outdoor activities and privacy with tranquil woods beyond rear fence line. The first level of the home also boasts two bedrooms – a very large primary bedroom with slider door to a private deck, and a second room off of the dining room that can serve as a guest bedroom, office, or den and has a separate entrance to the main rear deck. A full hall bathroom rests adjacent to the primary bedroom. The second floor has two large bedrooms and a second full hall bathroom. A lovingly enjoyed and cared for home in a peaceful neighborhood, don't miss this one! Additional features include central air conditioning, forced air natural gas heat, and the sellers just recently connected to city sewer.
