COMMENTS

Tucked away on one of the most private streets in Avalon, 4120 Bayberry Road offers a rare blend of exclusivity, space, and ocean views. With only 15 homes on this elevated, quiet street and underground utilities that preserve the clean, unobstructed sightlines, this oversized 100FT x 110FT lot delivers a truly exceptional living experience. Across the street, state-protected land ensures permanent unobstructed ocean views from the second and third-floor decks. Positioned in the preferred 'X' flood zone, this property sits at one of the island's highest elevations and does not require flood insurance, which is a significant advantage for coastal property owners. Spanning almost 5,200 square feet of conditioned living space across two levels, plus a third-floor den and deck, this home was built for both extravagant entertaining and relaxed shore living. The first level features an expansive family room, and a fully stocked kitchen complete with an ice maker and wet bar, perfect for hosting by the pool. Four spacious bedrooms are located on this level, including one en-suite, plus two generous hall bathrooms, comfortably accommodating family and guests. Upstairs, you're welcomed into a massive family room centered around a gas-fed fireplace, surrounded by soaring vaulted ceilings. The large kitchen is a chef's dream, with a center island, peninsula seating for four, and a dedicated dining area, all seamlessly connected for open-concept entertaining. A sprawling ocean-facing deck stretches across the entire width of the common areas, bringing in ocean breezes and breathtaking views. Also on this level is a powder room and the primary suite, complete with a private ocean-view balcony, spa-style ensuite, and built-in vanity area. A dedicated staircase provides direct access from the kitchen to the backyard, a rare layout detail that makes outdoor entertaining easy and functional. The expansive 100FT wide backyard offers one of Avalon's largest private pool settings, surrounded by plenty of space to entertain, dine, and relax. The third floor adds a quiet escape with a cozy den and private oceanside deck offering incredible whitewater views. Whether you're looking for a luxurious personal escape or a strong investment opportunity, 4120 Bayberry Road checks every box. With a proven rental history averaging $225,000 annually and property taxes just over $15,000, which is nearly half of what you would expect from comparable new construction, this home offers exceptional value and income potential. Move in and enjoy as-is, rent for immediate returns, or take your time planning a custom renovation or future new build on this oversized lot. Call today for a private showing.
