Tucked beneath a canopy of mature trees on picturesque Washington Street, this beautifully restored Cape Cod-style home offers timeless charm just steps from the Emlen Physick Estate, Cape May Tennis Club, and nearby parks. Enjoy a leisurely stroll to the vibrant Washington Street Mall, where boutique shops, fine dining, and local cafes await—or hop on your bike for a quick ride to the beach. Inside, this sun-filled cottage blends classic character with modern elegance. Gleaming hardwood floors flow throughout, complementing a welcoming living room with a cozy fireplace. The designer kitchen is a true centerpiece, featuring quartz countertops, a breakfast bar, and thoughtful details for the passionate home chef. A spacious dining area and inviting sun porch provide the perfect settings for both relaxed mornings and entertaining evenings. French doors open to a serene backyard oasis—complete with a deck, patio, fire pit, outdoor shower, and a charming fenced yard with a storage building. The first-floor primary suite offers convenience and comfort with a full bath, while the second level boasts three additional bedrooms and another full bathroom, ideal for family or guests. Additional highlights include a brick-paved driveway, an attached one-car garage, a partial basement with interior and exterior access, efficient gas heat, central air conditioning, and leased solar panels to be assumed by the buyer. This is your opportunity to own a piece of Cape May's charm—where history, style, and location come together effortlessly. Updates include new water line in 2025, new roof in 2024, new boiler and radiator in 2023, and new electrical wiring in 2023.
