Custom craftsmanship meets beach-bungalow charm in this thoughtfully re-imagined 5 Bedroom 2.5 bath upside-down home. The 1920 cottage was lifted and expanded to showcase a sun-splashed great room beneath soaring ceilings, anchored by an indoor/outdoor gas fireplace. Two oversized sliders open to wrap-around decking with a covered dining alcove—ideal for summer entertaining—while a rooftop deck delivers postcard sunsets and front-row seats to Friday-night fireworks. Downstairs, the bedroom level centers on a generous primary suite with dual closets, private deck access, and a spa-style bath featuring a soaking tub and oversized tile walk-in shower. A flexible front bedroom doubles as a home office. An ingeniously repurposed wing of the original bungalow offers its own sitting room, kitchenette, three additional bedrooms, and a full bath—perfect for visiting guests or multigenerational living. Bonus spaces abound: a finished attic dormer for play or overflow sleep, a ground-level vestibule that opens to the backyard, and a heated-floor band room. The deep garage fits two cars when shelving is removed, while additional storage lines the entire lower level. The home also features a Whole House filtration system, delivering filtered water to every bath and faucet. The backyard is a hidden gem, featuring two cherry trees, a peach tree, two apple trees, a fig tree, raspberries, strawberries and blackberry bushes—with plenty of room left for your dream garden. Great neighborhood, close to Wildwood's finest waterfront dining establishments and the New Marina at the Wharf. Move-in ready, coming fully furnished and designed for effortless coastal living—this is the rare home that balances character with modern convenience. Easy to show. Lockbox.
