Introducing a brand-new, fully custom estate in Stone Harbor's highly coveted Pennsylvania Avenue neighborhood. Brought to you by Wolstenholme Associates and WA Interiors in collaboration with McLaughlin Construction, this 5-bedroom, 5.5-bath home is offered fully designer-furnished and accessorized with a refined blend of custom and high-end selections. The exterior finishes were selected with sustainability, aesthetics, and longevity in mind. The cladding includes a mix of Acre ship lap siding with 10" exposure (made from upcycled rice hulls) and reSAWN's MYNAH thermally modified radiata pine. A standing seam metal roof in a weathered zinc finish carries a 50-year warranty, while Marvin windows and doors in a gunmetal finish tie seamlessly together. All decks are finished in Ipe decking and stainless-steel cable railings capped in Ipe. The pool area is finished with Marmiro sandblasted marble and a PebbleSheen plaster pool surface. Inside, the first floor is designed for elevated entertaining and relaxed family living. The family room, accessed through an ALLI metal pocket door, includes custom built-ins by Village Handcrafted Cabinetry and a handmade Moroccan Zellige tile backsplash. Sliding glass doors open to a raised patio that overlooks the pool, seamlessly extending the living space outdoors. A first-floor bedroom with ensuite bath located at the front of the home, offering ocean breezes and access to a spacious front deck. It features European white oak flooring and Phillip Jeffries grass cloth wallpaper. The bathroom features a Carrara marble top vanity, Indigo Seville ceramic tile, and marble mosaic floors. The second bedroom also has opens to the front porch, and is outfitted with shiplap millwork, a custom-built-in, and two custom Spanish-made pendant lights. The bathroom features AKDO's Sio Cubic Plaid porcelain floor tile and marble mosaic accents. A third bedroom – complete with custom bunk beds – includes its own ensuite with a honed penny round tile floor and featured millwork. The powder room stands out with a custom floating concrete vanity, integrated concrete sink, and hand-painted Moroccan tile. Commissioned artwork by Kirby Fredendall adorns the foyer, while a fully equipped laundry room is thoughtfully placed between the bedrooms. Upstairs, the home opens to dramatic vaulted ceilings and sweeping ocean views. Subtle details include mud-in stair lighting, concealed Sonance speakers, and a Portola Paints plaster fireplace surround. The kitchen features a large island with leathered quartzite, Bertazzoni range, Sub-Zero refrigerator, and a full coffee bar with beverage fridge and ice maker. A custom maple dining table seats ten and overlooks the expansive living room. Through multiple sliding doors, a large front deck offers additional entertaining space and breathtaking views of the 89th Street beach path and the ocean beyond. The fourth bedroom serves as a work-from-home space, complete with queen-sized Murphy bed, custom built-ins, with an adjacent full bath. The primary suite is a tranquil retreat with custom built-ins, spa-style bath clad in Arabescato Altissimo marble throughout, and a low-iron glass shower enclosure for crystal-clear clarity. Both bedrooms open to a private rear
