26 Lomurno is everything they say and there's no place that you'd rather be! This 3-bedroom, 2-bath ranch home is tucked away on a peaceful cul-de-sac in Cape May Court House. Sitting on just under an acre, this property combines comfortable living with plenty of outdoor amenities. Inside, you'll find a formal living room with vaulted ceilings and a cozy gas fireplace, along with a recently updated kitchen featuring stainless steel appliances. The layout includes two guest bedrooms, a full hall bath, a convenient laundry/utility closet, and a master suite with its own private bath. A spacious 16' x 27' family room addition, lined with windows, fills the home with natural light and offers great views of the landscaped grounds. The exterior is designed for both relaxation and functionality, with a heated in-ground pool, expansive patio, and fully irrigated landscaping. An approx. 200-foot driveway leads to a large detached 2-car garage, while three additional sheds provide even more storage. If you've been searching for a move-in ready home with generous space for family and friends, this is a property where the heart of rock and roll is still beating — a place that proves they still blowin' down the road when it comes to comfort, style, and lasting appeal.
