Discover your slice of coastal paradise in this exceptional six-bedroom, four and a half bath townhouse that captures the true essence of beachside living. Positioned on a corner beach block location with high elevation, this meticulously maintained home offers stunning views that will make every day feel like a vacation. The thoughtfully designed residence was built by renowned Tom Welsh Builders and spans 2,851 square feet across three levels. The first-floor features three bedrooms including a room that could be used as a bedroom, den, or home office. The home has plenty of space to adapt to your changing lifestyle needs. Two full bathrooms on this level ensure convenience for family and guests. The second floor serves as the heart of the home, showcasing a high-end kitchen with a large island for entertaining, premium stainless-steel appliances, custom cabinetry, and a pantry. The seamless flow between the kitchen, dining room, and living room create an ideal environment for relaxing and entertaining. The living room features a gas fireplace, while the deck offers breathtaking ocean views. A convenient powder room completes this level. The third-floor transforms into a private retreat with two bedrooms sharing a hall bathroom and a convenient laundry area. The luxurious primary bedroom, complete with an ensuite bathroom featuring double sinks, spacious walk-in closet, and access to a private deck with spectacular ocean views. What truly sets this property apart is its pristine condition as the owners have never used this home as a rental property, ensuring that it has been cared for to the highest standards. The three-zone heating, ventilation, and air conditioning system provides optimal comfort throughout the year. The location is in the desirable Townsend Inlet area adjacent to the coast guard station. The corner location provides additional privacy, steps to the beach, and the high elevation offers both protection and enhanced views. The home's design maximizes both comfort and functionality with plenty of natural light throughout. This townhouse represents more than just a home; it's a lifestyle choice embracing the relaxed pace of coastal living. Whether seeking a permanent residence, vacation retreat, or investment property, this home offers the perfect blend of luxury, location, and livability. This home creates an opportunity that rarely becomes available in this coveted area. Contact Matt today to schedule your private tour
