Open House This Saturday from 10:00am- 1:00 pm. 10 Fourth Avenue is the kind of home that quietly surprises you. It isn't trying to be flashy or overdone—it simply gives you the things that make everyday life feel good. Inside, the layout is warm and practical, with vaulted ceilings that lift the living space and a dining area that naturally becomes the heart of the home. The kitchen sits right where it should, making the flow of daily routines feel easy. Three bedrooms and two full baths offer flexibility for anyone starting out, simplifying, or somewhere in between. A dedicated laundry room and an attached one-car garage add the kind of comfort you appreciate more and more each day. Out back, the private deck and yard create a small oasis for morning coffee, pets, weekend projects, or a bit of fresh air after a long day. The location strikes that rare balance—close to the essentials of downtown Cape May Court House yet tucked into a neighborhood that feels grounded and settled. For buyers looking for an attainable way to step into homeownership or transition into a simpler lifestyle without giving up outdoor space, this home opens the door. Opportunities like this don't tend to sit long, especially in a market where value is becoming harder to find.
