Your Coastal Canvas Awaits! This two-bedroom, one-bath home—featuring city water, sewer, and heat—sits on a quiet lot on a dead end street and is ready for your personal touch. Recent updates include a newer roof. The home offers a full bath, two bedrooms with closets, kitchen, plus a stackable washer/dryer and two sheds in their current condition. Enjoy a fenced yard and a long driveway with plenty of room for a boat and/or camper. Conveniently located near the library, Robinson's Deli, and just minutes from the Delaware Bay. It's also a short drive to South Jersey's award-winning golf courses, dining, and entertainment. The property is being sold strictly as-is. The seller lived here year-round. Home inspections are welcome for informational purposes only, but no repairs or credits will be provided. The listing price reflects the home's current condition. Whether you're looking for an everyday home, coastal retreat or an investment opportunity, this property offers outstanding potential. Imagine the possibilities!
