This South End hidden gem is just waiting for you to start enjoying all of the wonderful secrets hidden here at 3926 Central Ave. Starting with the exteriors maintenance free vinyl siding, vinyl railings, fiberglass front porch, coated entrance steps with skid guard treads, enclosed outside shower, storage area and enough parking for 3+ cars. Once inside you realize that the current owner did not stop at the front door. take a few steps down into the great room featuring high ceilings, wide planked wood floors covering the living room and dining room area. The kitchen has granite counter tops back up to a tiled backsplash. Thomasville cabinets surround the stainless steel appliances. Just past the dining room table you can grab that favorite book and settle down out on the aptly named "Crows Nest" otherwise known as the front porch. Headed down the hallway we have a hall bath with wainscoted walls, Kohler faucets and amenities a tub/shower combo. A little further down are two welcoming guest bedrooms. Entering the master bedroom you will notice the generous room given here and the privacy offered for the master bath which also boasts wainscoted walls, Kohler faucets and amenities, glass shower partition.
