COMMENTS

A solid reputation in the area, this is a well-established event/party business with even more growth potential! Serving the Southern New Jersey marketplace, with consistent steady clients at a local winery, event hall, along with private parties, our event decorating business has been operating on a part-time basis for the last 5 years. There is a huge opportunity in the marketplace for growth in this well-established business. It has the potential to grow as large as you want it to. We've had to turn business away because of personal time. The rental décor, linens, and other equipment are included in the sale, making this offering a debt-free business. It has a social media presence and also includes the LLC, business name and website URL. Check out FB page FTD Event Resources. See inventory list in documents.
