COMMENTS

When you enter this attractive home, you can go to the main level or downstairs to the spacious family room, bath and 4th bedroom. This well-located bi-level home boasts a great floorplan featuring four spacious bedrooms three on the main level and a fourth at ground level with a family room and wood-burning fireplace and a full bath. Upgrades include flooring on the upper level with an upgraded tiled kitchen with tile on the lower level. The relaxing and private back yard is fenced and easily accessible through the convenient french doors on the lower level. This attractive home is tucked away in a great family neighborhood across from tennis courts to help keep you and your family in shape. The award-winning Mainland High School and close by K thru 8th grade schools accentuate the family environment. Easy access to local restaurants, shopping, recreation, a city beach and a very short ride to Ocean City and the beach, boardwalk and shops. Via the Garden State Parkway you can make it a short jaunt to the beach, Cape May or even historic Philadelphia. Schedule an appointment through the listing agent to preview this home,
