COMMENTS

This luxurious custom-built home is truly one-of-a-kind with its breathtaking and welcoming curb appeal and even better interior. The front pouch is beautifully framed with large columns which set the high expectations for the dramatic foyer which welcomes you with an open stair. On either side of the foyer, you will find a large office/study and a formal dining room. As you continue past the foyer, the open living room features an abundance of windows which allow the natural light to brighten the living room and gourmet chef's level eat-in kitchen with a deck overlooking the backyard oasis with a large patio and resort-like pool perfect for entertaining. The second floor offers a large primary suite with an expansive bathroom and adjacent walk-in closet. In addition to the primary, on the second floor you will find three more bedrooms and 2 additional bathrooms and a large recreation room. This incredible home also offers a huge, finished walk-out basement and a large 2 car garage.
