

History Notes

EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP - Welcome to History Notes, our weekly feature that looks back through Egg Harbor Township history.

Each week, we get a chance to learn or reminisce, courtesy of Lynn Wood of the Egg Harbor Township Historical Society, who is sharing early photos of places in Egg Harbor Township with our readers online and in our print edition.

This schooner being built is similar to the ships built along the English Creek at the former South Shipyard in Egg Harbor Township.

COMMENTS

Spectacular farm land in Egg Harbor Twp just minutes from Ocean City. This is truly a once in a lifetime opportunity to own one of the most pristine properties in South Jersey. Bordered by English Creek along the Great Egg Harbor River. Over 25 acres of fertile land ready to be farmed with additional wooded land that can be cleared to increase it. The marshlands are capable of producing 8,000 to 10,000 bales of salt hay annually providing the opportunity for immediate income. The property is also perfectly suited for aquaculture. Please do not enter the property without an appointment.
