Time to call the movers Don\'t miss this 2 year old home in Harbor Pines with recently installed private salt water pool. The foyer welcomes you to this open layout home. The spacious living/family area with large windows overlooks the landscaped yard The large kitchen is open to both the dining room and the kitchen eating area. Be part of everything as you cook in the well appointed kitchen with double oven and gas stove top. Enter the private wing for the primary bedroom with large walk in closet. The primary bath has a separate commode area. The large vanity features two sinks. The walk in shower has a built in bench for your convenience. The opposite wing of the house offers two more bedrooms and an additional full bathroom. There is a powder room in the foyer. From the living room step out to the covered porch where you can rest out of the sun or step down to the pool area which has room for many lounge chairs. Get into a rousing volley ball or cornhole game or just quietly practice putting. While located on the fifth hole of the golf course the tree line still maintains your privacy. The yard is fenced in for your convenience. Enjoy the convenience of the two car garage with additional driveway parking. Easy to show.
