COMMENTS

The Oxford is a very unique 10 story classic Art-deco building with only 57 units. This unit has just been re-modeled. The view from every room in the apartment is truly spectacular. The apartment runs the length of the building which gives fantastic ocean, boardwalk and bay views in every direction. Large windows magnify the almost 360 degree view. The unit contains 1784 square feet. It has 3 bedrooms and 3 full baths tucked away on the ninth floor where there are only three other apartments on the floor. You can not walk into this apartment without feeling your mood brighten and your stress disappear. This is what living on the beach is all about. Come see the apartment and you will know what I mean!!!
