Investor & House-Hacker Friendly!! Discover a rare duplex opportunity that appeals to both savvy investors and first-time buyers looking to house hack. This property offers strong rental potential with two spacious units, each unit has a basement that can be finished for added future value. Recent updates—including a newer roof and a newer tankless water heater—provide peace of mind and help reduce long-term maintenance costs. Outside, the home sits on a generously sized lot with a huge driveway that provides ample parking for tenants or multiple vehicles. The large detached garage offers additional income potential, storage, or workshop possibilities. A big, open yard adds further appeal for tenants and future enhancements. Whether you're expanding your portfolio or planning to live in one unit and rent out the other to significantly offset your monthly expenses, this duplex checks all the boxes: space, updates, rental flexibility, and long-term upside. Perfect for maximizing cash flow and creating immediate equity opportunities.
