Discover the potential at 4015 West Avenue—a two-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath townhome featuring a composite front porch that opens into a bright living room with a bay window and interior access to the attached garage below. A half-flight up, the kitchen and dining area offer white shaker cabinetry, granite countertops, hardwood floors, a balcony, and a powder room. This level also includes a bay meadow-facing bedroom and a full bathroom. The next level features a primary suite with an ensuite bath and walk-in closet, while a short set of steps leads to a rooftop deck with sweeping views—an exceptional spot to enjoy stunning sunsets—plus convenient walk-in storage. With a washer/dryer, gas heat, central air, abundant natural light, a flexible layout, and room to update and add value, this townhome presents a rare opportunity in a highly desirable Southend location close to the beach and dining. Purchase now to customize for summer 2026—ideal as a primary residence, second home, or investment property.
